

The Ultimate Backpack Must-Haves! (Parody)

School can be annoying. It really can. Although, you can make it just a little better by making sure you have all the right materials to survive each day. I've decided to make a list of things that I think everyone should have to live through each and every boring day in class.

- A backpack, because what else are you gonna put all this stuff in?
- A pencil, so that your teachers don't freak out when you ask for one
- Paper in a binder, you know, so that you're at least a LITTLE prepared
- Gum, but don't let anyone know you have it, or else it will be gone before you even get a chance to chew it
- Water, you should stay hydrated
- Really colorful pens, for doodling purposes of course
- Snacks, in case you get hungry
- Headphones, to jam out during math
- PHONE CHARGER, what will you ever do when your precious phone dies??
- Hand sanitizer, do I need to explain this one?
- Money, for the vending machines

Well, these were all the things I could think of that you would need to survive school. Hopefully we can get through the rest of this school year with a few of these essentials. Good luck to all!
