

Mid-Winter Break! Woo-Hoo!

Guess what? Mid-winter break is right around the corner! Tomorrow, Friday February 16th, is our last day of school before we all get a whole week off. Everyone is excited to have the week to relax and hangout. Some people are planning on just hangin' around their houses, some are going to hang out with their friends, and some are even going out of town! What are you going to do during break?
